WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 16.

A STRANGE SCENE IN A BAR ROOM.—A Philadelphia Journal describes a remarkable experience that befell visitors to a well-known palatial bar room in that city one evening in the early fall. The men who stood at the counter, chatting and drinking as they leaned against the handsome brass rod which surrounds it, were startled by hearing a man give a loud shriek of rage and pain, and drop his glass of liquor. Not long after, another shout was heard, and a man fell to the floor paralyzed. Still a third victim fell down, writhing, and there was a general scare. It was noticed that each man had fallen at the same place—in the middle of the semi-circular counter; and one of the on-lookers declared the spot must be bewitched. A more thoughtful spectator, however, suspected that the curious phenomena were produced by electricity, and an examination verified his suspicion. A steel screw, from which depended an electric light in the billiard room below, had been driven through the lath and plaster so far that it came in contact with an iron girder, and the men whose involuntary antics had caused astonishment, had completed the circuit in their own persons by touching the railing of the bar, to making the connection with the girder. The men had an opportunity of learning how good a conductor of electricity the human body is.

Life in the Paris Sewers is possible, for a short time to the robust, but the majority of refined persons would prefer immediate death to existence in their reeking atmosphere. How much more revolting to be in one's self a living sewer. But this is actually the case with those in whom the inactivity of the liver drives the refuse matter of the body to escape through the lungs, breath, the pores, kidneys and bladder. It is astonishing that life remains in such a dwelling. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" restores normal purity to the system and renews the whole being.

Memo. The object of this suit is to obtain a decree in the above-entitled cause substituting and appointing a new trustee in the place and stead of Charles E. ## Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence, in its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe.

Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent.
